KUROPATKIN REPORTS JAPS ARE MOVING

Preparing to Renew the Battle in East.

Stoessel Reports—Inquiry Proceeding in North Sea Affair—The Day's War News.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 31.—Kuropatkin today reports as follows: "The Japanese have received reinforcements from the south and Feng Wang Cheng, whence it may be concluded that this enemy is completing the grouping of forces for taking the offensive. The enemy is moving from the west to the east. The weather is moderate in the day time, but six degrees below freezing in the night. The sanitary condition of the troops is good."

Japs Bombard Russians.
Sakharoff reports. "We repulsed a Japanese attack on Sunday on our entrenchments north of Linshiup. The Japanese bombarded our right through-out yesterday evening."

Gen. Stoessel Reports.
St. Petersburg, Oct. 31.—Gen. Stoessel in command at Port Arthur today reports that the Russians repulsed the attack on the north front on October 16. He adds: "Our artillery advanced to Pamyacan and drove back the Japanese infantry. The enemy continued the bombardment through the night."

To Renew Battle.
Mukden, Oct. 31.—Indications today point to the early resumption of the battle of the Shakhe river.

Assault on Port Arthur.

Chefoo, Oct. 31.—Some details of the general assault upon Port Arthur, which began October 24, have just developed. The Japanese opened fire with their artillery along the whole line. The Russians replied. The bombardment continued furiously. At 4 o'clock p. m., October 25, a regiment of Japanese swept out from behind a recently captured hill adjacent to Rihlung mountain and advanced on the Russian trenches, lying between Rihlung mountain and the railroad, occupying them after hours of fighting. Meanwhile another body of Japanese attacked the trenches on the slope of Rihlung mountain.

To advance against them over an unbroken defile, which was mined, was a serious problem. The Japanese taking advantage of great holes blown in the slope at various places by the bombardment, securing protection.

Meanwhile the fire of all the available artillery was directed against the Russian trenches, the Russians eventually returning, whereupon the Japanese in 30 minutes constructed trenches sufficient to shield themselves. The Russians exploded mines, but the Japanese claim, without result.

British Were Prepared.

London, Oct. 31.—The admiralty states that 28 British battleships and 75 other warships were mobilized during the four days that the Anglo-Russian crisis was most acute.

The Board of Inquiry.

London, Oct. 31.—Reports are current this morning that the board of inquiry to the North sea affair will consist of one Russian, one English and one French official or person of high position. The report is not confirmed, but it is considered practically true. It is thought likely that two persons from two smaller and less interested powers will be added to the list.

Premier Balfour and Lord Lansdowne, the foreign secretary, made personal calls on M. Cambon, the French minister, to thank him for his efforts toward a settlement of the Anglo-Russian dispute. It is learned that Mr. Cambon and the French foreign secretary, M. Del Casse, exchanged 4 telegrams on the matter during the two days when the situation was critical.

Sunday a Quiet Day.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 31.—Sunday passed quietly at the front. The Japanese forces apparently have some move on foot, but the exact object is not known. A flanking movement is daily expected.

London, Oct. 31.—Naval reports show that British war vessels are so disposed as to keep a sharp watch on all movements along the proposed route of the Russian Baltic squadron, including the Canary islands, where the Russians have prepared elaborate arrangements for coaling from German steamers. Admiral Rojestvensky's four battleships remain at Vigo, but according to some reports the firing in the North sea was done by Admiral Voeikovsky's squadron, which is now at Tangier. The Russians' own inquiry into the Dogger bank affair was opened at Vigo on Sunday: the British inquiry will open at Hull forthwith. The inquiry will be resumed at Hull on Nov. 2.

A dispatch from Vigo, Spain, says: Inquiries fail to obtain any confirmation of the report published in the United States that Vice Admiral Rojestvensky has requested Emperor Nicholas to relieve him of his command. The Russian consul general here said that he was not aware that there was any question of replacing the admiral, and that he did not believe such a proposition had ever been raised. It is believed the international investigation here of the North sea incident has begun. Conferences have been held between the Russian and English naval commanders now here. The Spanish foreign office has given out a statement to the effect that Russia has asked Spain's permission for the ships of Admiral Rojestvensky's squadron to remain at Vigo until the investigation of the North sea affair shall have been concluded. Spain, according to the official statement, consulted with the representatives of the several powers, who gave their approval. The authorization, however, applies only to Russian vessels now at Vigo.

France Prevented Hostilities.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 31.—The world will doubtless take particular satisfaction in according to Emperor Nicholas, to whose initiative the Hague convention owes its existence, the honor and credit of having proposed an honorable solution of the North sea incident, which might have plunged Russia and Great Britain into war, by an appeal to its rules. Nevertheless, it is learned on very high authority that this diplomatic triumph belongs to M. Delcasse, the French foreign minister. When the Yellow book of France and the Blue book of Great Britain covering this incident are shown some very interesting diplomatic history will be disclosed. It was M. Delcasse that suggested an inquiry to establish the facts through an international commission under the Hague convention, offering the suggestion simultaneously to both governments. The idea found instant favor, both here and in London, and Thursday night the Russian and British propositions, identical in effect, actually crossed each other on the way to the respective capitals.

JAP SHELLS

Destroyed a Smokeless Powder Magazine at Port Arthur—Japs are Satisfied.

Chefoo, Oct. 31.—The third general attack on Port Arthur began Oct. 24, and, according to unimpeachable authority, on Oct. 26 Japanese shells set fire to the only smokeless powder magazine in Port Arthur. Portions of the town caught fire, the conflagration continuing the whole day. On Oct. 26 the Japanese captured the Russian trenches on the slope of Rihlung mountain, also a fortified position protecting that fortress. The Japanese consider the progress of the siege to be highly satisfactory.

Severe Engagement.

Mukden, Oct. 31.—The attack by the Japanese on the Buddhist temple hill on Oct. 27 led to sharp fighting. The Japanese artillery played on the position from early in the morning, rendering the trenches untenable, shells and shrapnel sweeping everything and demolishing all the shelters. Two machine guns with the battalion defending the hill were smashed and disabled, but the defenders carried off the remains of the guns when they were forced to retire. The Japanese infantry attack under cover of the bombardment was made in close order. There was desperate hand-to-hand fighting in the trenches, followed by a counter attack with the bayonet. The Japanese finally gained the hill, but were unable to hold it in the face of the deadly Russian artillery fire.

Kuropatkin's Report.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 31.—General Kuropatkin has telegraphed as follows under date of Oct. 29: "I have received no dispatch reporting encounters with the enemy on Sunday. During a cavalry reconnaissance Saturday, after an infantry fight supported by artillery, we occupied the village of Chiansanhenan. The enemy has retired from Sindiapu. On Oct. 28 our chasseurs, with insignificant losses, retained a village a kilometer west of Chenlianpu against a violent Japanese bombardment." General Kuropatkin also records other outpost affairs, including the Russian reoccupation of the village of Tynsin, a short distance south of Luidziatung, whence they had been previously expelled by the Japanese, who burned the village.

Agree to Arbitrate.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 31.—Russia and Belgium have signed a treaty making it obligatory that all matters which may come up for discussion between the two signatory nations be submitted to arbitration.

Fatal Shooting Affair.

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 31.—Patrick M. Ryan, saloon keeper, shot and probably fatally wounded Michael Driscoll, 31, this morning. Driscoll was taken to the Provident Hospital. The shooting followed a dispute over the price of drinks.

Paul Kruger's Remains.

The Hague, Oct. 31.—The remains of former President Kruger, of the Transvaal republic, who died in July were taken to Rotterdam today for conveyance to South Africa on board the steamer Batavier.

NAN PATTERSON MAY BE FREED BY AUTHORITIES

Two Men Declare That Young Shot Himself.

The Witnesses Have a Special Reason for Keeping Their Identity a Deep Secret.

New York, Oct. 31.—The district attorney's office today is investigating information which, if proven to be correct, will result in the speedy release of Nan Patterson, the chorus girl, connected with the death of "Caesar" Young, the bookmaker. Young was mysteriously shot while driving with Miss Patterson last June. Two witnesses have been found who state they saw "Caesar" Young deliberately shoot himself in the cab with Miss Patterson. The witnesses are prominent in business in communities where they live and immediately after witnessing the shooting swore each other to secrecy. A vow was made because there was no reason why either of them should be in this city at that time. They have communicated to the district attorneys that they are willing to verify the statements if the district attorney will agree not to hold them as witnesses.

BRITISH

Collier Shelled by Baltic Fleet But Result is Unknown

Berlin, Oct. 31.—The Frankfurter Zeitung has a dispatch today from Tangier which states the officers of the Baltic fleet there admit that while coming to Tangier they shelled a British collier which was carrying no lights. The result of the bombardment is not known.

BLIND

INVALID TO GET FORTUNE FROM THE WEST.

Pittsburg Woman Claims Big Estate, But There Are Other Mrs. Austins.

Pittsburg, Oct. 31.—Mrs. Ann Frances Austin, a blind invalid, who resides with her widowed daughter in McKees Rocks, has just been notified that she is the sole heir to a fortune of $275,000 left by her husband, who some years ago left her and took out a mining claim in Montana in connection with a party of eastern millionaires. He died without letting anyone know of the whereabouts of his wife. A friend of the husband has been searching for the wife for some time and located her here yesterday.

New York, Oct. 31.—C. H. Lithgon, the Spokane, Washington millionaire, who is searching for a Mrs. Austin to give her $275,000 as her share in certain mining deal in the west, is now in this city and will have the task of investigating the claims of one hundred Mrs. Austins, every one of whom is quite sure that she is the one rightfully entitled to the fortune.

Mr. Lithgon is said to represent a millionaire mine owner in Montana, who controls the mining property in which Mrs. Austin has a share. Although Mrs. Austin has never paid any of the several assessments on the stock which she holds, the man whom Mr. Lithgon represents wants her to participate in the distribution of wealth to the share holders of the formerly worthless mine. The search for the right Mrs. Austin is rather difficult as the rich mine owner does not remember her maiden name, although he remembers her features well. It is said that the woman at one time lived in Syracuse, where she married a man named Austin from whom she was afterward divorced. Ten years ago the couple lived in Dubuque, Iowa. Mrs. Austin was a talented artist and Mr. Lithgon hopes that may help him in finding a trace of her.

The First Victim.

New York, Oct. 31.—Christopher Frawley, 23 years old, was instantly killed this morning while at work in the subway at Fourteenth street and Fourth avenue. Frawley was employed by the Union Switch and Signal company and was placing an automatic switch when he was struck by a southbound express train. This is the first death resulting from accident in the tunnel since the opening.

NO BODIES

Have as Yet Been Recovered from the Trinidad Mine Where Probably Fifty Men Perished.

Trinidad, Colo., Oct. 31.—No bodies have yet been taken out of the mine at Terco, where an explosion exploded 49 miners Friday according to a statement of the coroner, who has returned from Terco. A miner was lowered down an air shaft by a rope and saw and identified three bodies, but they were not removed. It was thought the bodies could be taken out within an hour, but while relief workers were preparing to rescue them another slide of rock occurred, making the progress of the rescuers slower and more dangerous than ever. So great was the explosion that huge boulders block the progress of the rescuers and make blasting necessary. These blasts cause further rockslides.

NOTE TO POWERS

Hay Instructs Ambassadors—Peace Conference Asked for by the United States.

Washington, Oct. 31.—In a circular note Secretary Hay has carried out the president's instructions relative to proposing a second Hague conference. The note not only contemplates the reassembling of the Hague conference for the consideration of questions specifically mentioned by the original conference, as demanding further attention, such as the rights and duties of neutrals; the inviolability of private property in naval warfare and the bombardment of ports by naval forces, but goes further by practically endorsing the project of a general system of arbitration treaties and the establishment of an international congress to meet periodically in the interests of peace. The issue of the call while the present war is in progress is justified by the fact that the first Hague conference was called before our treaty of peace with Spain was concluded.

The note says: "In accepting this trust, the president was not unmindful of the fact, so vividly brought home to all the world, that a great war is now in progress. He recalled the circumstances that at the time when, on Aug. 24, 1898, his majesty, the emperor of Russia, sent forth his invitation to the nations to meet in the interests of peace, the United States and Spain had merely halted in their struggle to devise terms of peace. While at the present moment no armistice between the parties now contending is in sight, the fact of an existing war is no reason why the nations should relax the efforts they have so successfully made hitherto toward the adoption of rules of conduct which may make more remote the chances of future wars between them."

AT MIDNIGHT

Grave of the Chicago Man Opened and Evidence That He Was Murdered Found.

Laporte, Ind., Oct. 31.—Shortly after midnight, with lanterns to furnish the light, Sheriff Craft of this city, and Willis Effertz of Chicago, with the assistance of several other men, opened the grave of the unknown man found with a bullet hole in the back of his head. The exhumed body was at once identified by William Effertz, as that of his brother, J. J. Effertz, who left Chicago a number of weeks ago, and of whose whereabouts nothing was known until Sheriff Craft began to probe the mystery.

The officers and the brother of the dead man declare that Effertz was murdered and that the evidence which will be brought to the attention of a special grand jury admits of no other theory than that Effertz was lured from his home in Chicago by the promise of employment, taken to the home of the man who had ostensibly hired him, robbed and slain.

MINE EXPLODES

Nagasaki, Japan, Oct. 31.—A mine exploded in Nagasaki harbor yesterday, while being carried ashore from the steamer Daniel Oda Maru. The steamer was badly damaged, and ten of the crew were killed and injured.

Ohio Glassblower Killed.

Parks was killed and Lamont was badly injured, but will recover. The men had been driving in a buggy and stepped into the street to settle a drinking quarrel.

THREE KILLED MANY INJURED IN A WRECK

A World's Fair Train in a Collision.

Accident Occurred on the Missouri Pacific Railroad at Tipton, Missouri.

Kansas City, Oct. 31.—In a head-on collision between section No. 2 and section No. 1 of train No. 3, Missouri Pacific world's fair special, at Tipton, Mo., three persons were killed and a score injured. Train No. 3, on account of the heavy world's fair travel, was made up in two sections, the first leaving St. Louis for Kansas City at 10:10 p. m. The second section left a few minutes later, and when it reached Tipton section No. 1 was taking on passengers. According to Engineer Ramsey of section No. 2, a headlight in the yards blinded him and he was unable to see section No. 1. He also says that his orders were "clear ahead."

The second section was running about 20 miles an hour when the collision occurred. The end sleeper of section No. 1 was entirely demolished and the second sleeper was overturned. The dead: Mrs. D. Bright Walker, Lewisburg, Pa.; J. W. Bagby, Kansas City; Mrs. Margaret Burke, Kansas City.

SILVER

Strike in Leadville District Said to be a Bonanza.

Leadville, Colo., Oct. 31.—What is said to be the greatest silver strike ever known in this camp has been made in the Coronado mine district. The ore body is said to extend over thirty acres and to be 145 feet in depth. The ore carries thirty ounces of silver to the ton and as it is easy to mine it is regarded as a bonanza.

GOVERNOR NASH LAID TO REST AT COLUMBUS

Hundreds Attended the Funeral on Sunday.

The Only Display at the Obsequies Was the Wealth of Floral Tributes.

Columbus, Oct. 31.—The body of Hon. George K. Nash, former governor of Ohio, who died Friday at his home in this city of heart disease, was laid to rest at Greenlawn cemetery. The funeral services were brief. There was no pageant save a dozen carriages bearing the pallbearers, the few relatives and some of his most immediate friends. The only display was the wealth of floral tributes. The body was removed from his late residence to the Broad Street Presbyterian church. Fifteen minutes later the doors were opened and the body lay in state until the hour of the funeral services. Thousands viewed the remains. State officers and prominent citizens of Columbus attended the services, which were read by Rev. S. S. Palmer, the Presbyterian divine. The remains of the ex-governor now repose beside those of his wife and daughter.

OPERATION

Performed Upon the Japanese Minister, Mr. Takahira, for Appendicitis in East.

New York, Oct. 31.—An operation for appendicitis was performed on Japanese Minister Kozon Takahira in a hotel in this city. The case is said to be a serious one, and attaches of the Japanese legation at Washington have been summoned to the minister's bedside. Mr. Takahira arrived here from Washington Friday night and immediately after being assigned to a room at the hotel complained of illness and asked that a physician be sent for. The physician found the minister suffering much pain, but remedies were administered which alleviated his sufferings and allowed him to pass the remainder of the night comfortably. Saturday, however, the minister could retain no food, and the other symptoms caused the physician to believe that the case was one of appendicitis, and when it was positively diagnosed as such an immediate operation was decided upon.

New York, Oct. 31.—At the Hotel Majestic this morning it was stated Kozon Takahira, envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary from Japan to the United States, who was operated yesterday for appendicitis, was holding his own and was doing as well as could be expected. His condition, however, is considered very serious and he cannot be pronounced out of danger for two or three days at least.

The registration on each of the four days with the total is given in the following table:

Charles L. Flary stated Monday afternoon that the Board of Elections will be in session next Saturday evening from 7 until 9 o'clock, and again on Monday afternoon, the day before election, from 2 until 5.30 o'clock for the purpose of granting certificates of removal correcting errors and granting new orders of registration where the voters had a legal excuse for not registering on any of the four regular registration days. The registrars will not be in session Saturday but will be in session to register upon order of the board, etc., on Monday afternoon between the hours stated above.

There are only four women registered, two in Precinct C, Third ward, and one each in A of the Third and B of the Second.

The women can only vote for members of the school board, and as the Republicans and Democrats agreed to take school affairs out of politics by each nominating three members, six to be elected, the women did not think it worth while to register.

Estimating the population of the city at four people to each voter Newark has a population of 24,564. Some think the figure should be 31,2, but many declare it is none too high from the fact that many people here have not resided in Newark long enough to vote, and others who might have registered have not done so.

Zanesville Registration.

Zanesville, Oct. 31.—The total registration in Zanesville is 6834, exceeding the number of registrations in 1900 by 247. Women to the number of 700 registered. The population of Zanesville, according to these figures, is 17,150, considerably less than 1900 more than Newark.

TONIGHT

TEN EXTRA POLICEMEN WILL BE ON DUTY.

Officers of the City Determined to Prevent Destruction of Property by the Boys.

Tonight is Halloween. Every snarl boy and the large ones, too, have made preparation for this occasion. Mayor Ordway informs the Advocate that he has made arrangements to have ten special policemen on duty in addition to the regular force tonight, and says that any destruction of property and other evidences of lawlessness will be meted and that the perpetrators will be given the full extent of the law. For some years there has been more or less of this work done at Halloween, and the police are determined to prevent it tonight, if possible.

BUILDING FALLS KILLING MANY AT MEMPHIS

Ten to Twenty Bodies in the Debris.

Wood Building Collapsed Monday Morning—Several Injured Were Rescued.

Memphis, Tenn., Oct. 31.—With an awful crash and without warning the Boyle building, occupied by the Continental Savings bank and a number of offices, collapsed this morning at 9:40 and at least twenty lives are believed to have been snuffed out in the death trap. Only one man has escaped alive, John Fischer, a tailor on the top floor who was injured about the head and face. Scores of policemen and others rushed to the scene and the work of rescue is now going on bravely. Business in every direction is paralyzed by the awful catastrophe, and every effort is being made to get out the bodies of the dead. The building was next to the site of the proposed skyscraper of the Tennessee Trust company, the excavation for which caused the collapse of the Boyle building. The work of rescue of men pinned down by brick and other debris of the collapsed building is progressing rapidly and six persons have been taken out, some of whom are injured, but none fatally. Among them are: F. D. M. Schas, president of the Continental Savings bank, who is delirious; Clarence M. Honoburg, cashier of the Continental Savings bank, who has a leg broken and his nose smashed.

To Young Men.

In a week an election will be held to choose a President of the United States. Every vote cast on November 8 should be directed by conviction. No young voter can afford to approach the polls unless he has made an effort to satisfy his judgment as to what is best for his country and himself. In the whole history of the country, perhaps, there has not been a time when the voter should more carefully consider the result of his act. Let no young voter underestimate the issues between the parties. There were never more distinct or wider issues than those which now separate the parties. Outrageous tariffs enacted by a Republican Congress are robbing the people through the power which is given to the trusts and combines to levy tribute. The Democrats propose a revision of the schedules wherever they are unfair. The trusts themselves have formed an alliance with the Roosevelt administration and in return for a license to do as they please have agreed to support the Republican national ticket. On the other hand the Democrats promise to suppress these tremendous monopolies.

The extravagance in Republican administration since Roosevelt has occurred the White House has been so great as to be scandalous in the increased burdens thrown upon the people. It is pledged by the Democrats that this evil shall be remedied, and the record of the Democratic party is that it has always reduced expenses when in power. Mr. Roosevelt believes that, following the example of European monarchies and empires we should have a colonial policy, even to the extent of making distant peoples our unwilling subjects, and that we should meddle in matters which concern foreign countries and not our own. The Democrats believe that the policy of sacrificing the lives of thousands of men and hundreds of millions of money in the Philippines should be stopped, and that the inhabitants of those distant islands should be given assurance of ultimate independence. The Democrats believe that this free republic should be preserved and that the drift toward an empire, which is the meaning of this colonial policy of the Roosevelt administration should be effectively stopped by the people when they vote on November 8. And these are not all the differences between the parties in which the Democrats occupy the side which makes for the welfare of the country. When the candidates are considered, who is there who will say that the country's peace and prosperity will not have a surer guaranty of safety under Judge Parker than it is likely to have under Roosevelt? Young men, consider your vote carefully.

AWFUL THREAT

To Frighten Voters of This District Into Voting for Factional Mr. Smyser.

The threat is made that unless M. L. Smyser is elected to Congress, the more than 200,000 people of this great district will fare very badly if the Republicans control the next House of Representatives. Managers of the Smyser canvass, when they make such a threat, are guilty of political blackmail. When the people of one of the most populous and wealthy districts in Ohio are plainly told that they need expect nothing from a Republican Congress and a Republican administration unless they choose to vote for a Republican candidate they are as much the victims of blackmail as though under duress they were compelled to deliver over to some scoundrel their fortunes or estates.

Vote for Smyser or you will be the victim of administrative dispensure! Vote for Smyser, or your city will be given no public building, no additional mail facilities, and, Mr. Farmer, you will have no papers or letters delivered at your door by rural free delivery! In a hundred ways the national administration, so the Smyser partisans say, will get even with you, if you vote to turn down the man that did such heroic work against Marcus A. Hanna in the Senatorial contest of 1903. All the power of the national administration, should Mr. Roosevelt be elected, would be brought to bear, under the influence of Mr. Foraker, to even up scores with the voters of this district should Mr. Smyser be defeated. Now this is a most remarkable situation. Perhaps the constitutional guaranty of a Republican form of government to the citizens of the several states will be taken away from the people of the 17th district should Smyser be defeated and the Toothful Terror remain President.

It is dolefully prophesied by the American Tribune, sponsor for the Smyser candidacy, that should he be defeated, the energies of a possible Republican administration would be concentrated in one tremendous endeavor to "get even" with the district. Our postoffices would become the "habitation of jackals" and our public buildings of all kinds, "courts for ostriches." Every Democrat and every Republican would be under the ban of political excommunication. Hanna and McKinley Republicans, particularly, are admonished that their political lives depend upon their loyal support of Martin Luther Smyser. What Smyser would do to the district would be a plenty. Old Republican wheel horses, that for years have borne the brunt of battle, would be hustled to the stable. The light of his wrath would fall alike upon Democrat and Republican—that is, upon some Republicans. All would to some extent, feel the burden of his and the Pontifical Teddy's terrible displeasure.

Of course Mr. Smyser, with all his bravado, has run up against a tough proposition. The people of this district have never yet submitted to blackmail. Political footpads are accorded scant courtesy by the voters of the old 17th. The district has for more than a generation—for fifty years and more—been represented in Congress by men whose public and private record alike were without a stain. Honest representation of an honest constituency has ever prevailed from the day of the brilliant Samuel S. Cox to those of Hon. John W. Cassingham. Worthy in all respects, from the standpoint of private character and capacity for public business, is the Hon. J. Edward Hurst, who has added lustre to their own names and reflected credit on an intelligent constituency. Mr. Hurst will not betray the interests of the people of the 17th district or of the country in congress by getting involved in private deals that will detract from his usefulness as a representative of the people.

The old people of the United States and the students of history know that the real reason that Henry Clay failed to be elected President was because of his enmity to Andrew Jackson and his aspersion of this great hero and Democratic leader. Yet we have a candidate for President today who is the defamer of both Thomas Jefferson and Andrew Jackson. That candidate is Theodore Roosevelt, and his interiority to Henry Clay in every attribute that pertains to statesmanship is so vast that comparison is odious. When the people rejected a great statesman like Henry Clay, because of his enmity to Andrew Jackson, how can they swallow such a small minded, narrow politician as Theodore Roosevelt, when he has so relentlessly defamed both Thomas Jefferson and Andrew Jackson?

The American citizen who has any reverence or sincere respect for Thomas Jefferson, cannot vote for his defamer, Theodore Roosevelt.

ELECTION DAY

A Part Holiday Under the New Law. Section of Statute is Here Quoted.

The new election law requires that from 5 30 a. m. till 5 a. m., on election day shall be a legal part holiday for election purposes only. Employees who are electors shall not be required to work during those hours under penalty for the employer, his officer or agent, who may require said employees to work at such hours. The penal part of the law may be seen from the following quotation.

"Section 6. The first Tuesday after the first Monday in November of each year, from and between the hours of 5.30 o'clock a. m. and 9 o'clock a. m. shall be for election purposes only, a legal part holiday. And no person who is an elector shall be compelled or required to perform any labor between said hours, nor shall any employer or his or its officers or agents discharge any such person because he fails to labor between said hours, or require or order such employee to accompany him to the voting place of such employee; and any persons violating the provisions of this act shall, upon conviction, be fined not more than $25."

The St. Louis Exposition proves that the inventions and discoveries which are doing most to change the world are racing, the submarine boat, wireless telegraphy, the aeroplane, the automobile and the gas producer—a simple machine to replace coal for manufacturing uses.

The soil of Cula is extremely fruitful. Cabbages there are so large that heads weigh 10 to 20 pounds each are common. All vegetables do well. Radishes may be eaten from fourteen to eighteen days after sowing, while corn produces three crops per year. Sweet potatoes grow all the year.

AMUSEMENTS

"When Women Love" the big new scenic melodrama, will be presented at the Auditorium November 1, by a large and competent company. The entire production is worthy of note and is one of the best attractions playing the popular priced houses.

The play is a new one, and deals comparatively with the rich and poor, the scenes being laid in New York City, prominent among them being the "Womens' Ward at Blackwell's Island," the interior of a large factory with the machine in operation; the great mouse scene, and the garden fete with its marvellous electrical effects. The novel features, elaborate scenery and thrilling climaxes make it an attraction above the ordinary. It is a play that will delight and please all classes. The action of the piece is interspersed with musical specialties rendered by well-known vaudeville artists, including Tom Waters, the tramp pianist. Seat sale opens Monday.

EBEN HOLDEN.

Henry Horton, who has been engaged by Herrick & Elbridge to play the title role in "Eben Holden," tells an interesting story of a prominent Manche Kendall in Eben Holden.

English actor, who is well known for his bibulous habits. "A friend of mine called at the apartments of this actor one morning," said Mr. Horton, "and was informed that the actor in question was still asleep. My friend, who is a little high tempered, as well as a man of importance, remarked to a mutual friend: 'How is this that I can see a cabinet minister at any time in the morning, but I can never see my friend at that time?' The mutual friend soothingly replied, 'If Black is invisible in the morning he will even matters up by seeing you twice in the evening.' 'Oh,' muttered the fault-finding friend, 'I suppose then that at that time of the day he sees double.' Eben Holden will be seen at the Auditorium on November 4.

WHEN THE BELL TOLLS.

This is the uncommon title of the beautiful romantic play which will be produced at the Auditorium soon. The title has been taken from the venerable Roberts, the monk of St. Bernard, who in the final act of this successful play, in answer to a query, as the bell of St. Bernard is tolling, "What means the tolling of that bell?" replies, "Scarcely a day passes but some poor traveler is lost amid the snows of that race around this old monastery. The dogs of St. Bernard, imbued with human intelligence by the great Creator, go forth on their errand of mercy when the bell tolls." In the great plateau scene the full blooded St. Bernard dogs, led by Champion Seger, are used.

and Cincinnati, but now of Chicago, was arrested at the latter city on a warrant sworn out by two chorus girls charging him with obtaining money under false pretenses.

The girls stated that Castleton, a few days ago, had an advertisement in the Kansas City papers for "girls to join the Castleton Opera company." Responses were many and he selected 23 girls whom he assured would soon be stars in the theatrical firmament. It was claimed he took the bunch to Chicago, where he said his principal performers were quartered at the Auditorium Annex. When they reached the Windy City he took the girls to a cheap hotel, and when he made no arrangement to take them to an opera house for rehearsals they became suspicious, made an investigation and later caused Castleton's arrest. Castleton's advertisements in the newspapers required that the girls "be young and good looking, possessed of fine voices and must have $100 with which to defray the preliminary expenses." The girls claimed that the would-be theatrical manager secured their money.

Castleton has had several other unsuccessful ventures along theatrical lines, and has been married four times.

SWEETHEART

Saw the Man Who Had Saved Her Life Struck and Killed by a Locomotive.

Marshfield, O., Oct. 31.—At the sacrifice of his own life Charles Parkhurst, a molder, 25 years of age, saved his sweetheart from being killed by a Baltimore and Ohio passenger train.

Sunday afternoon near the Sherman Heimman Park.

Parkhurst, Miss Sadie Stull and another couple had been at the park during the afternoon and were walking along the B. and O. tracks on their way home, when the tragedy occurred. Northbound passenger train No. 3 came around the curve at high speed. Parkhurst turned, saw the train which was almost upon them and pushed Miss Stull off the tracks. The next instant the engine struck him, hurling him quite a distance and killing him instantly before the eyes of his sweetheart, who had fallen down the embankment, but was uninjured.

NIP IT IN THE BUD.

First Appearance of Dandruff a Forerunner of Future Baldness.

That such is the case has been conclusively proven by scientific research. Prof. Unna, the noted European skin specialist, declares that dandruff is the burrowed-up cuticle of the scalp, caused by parasites destroying the vitality in the hair bulb. The hair becomes lifeless, and, in time, falls out. This can be prevented.

Newbro's Herpicide kills this dandruff germ, and restores the hair to its natural softness and abundance.

Herpicide is now used by thousands of people—all satisfied that it is the most wonderful hair preparation on the market to-day.

TROLLEY CAR

STRUCK AND KILLED OLD MAN ON TRACK.

Dennis Spinks, infirmity inmate, hit by a C. N. & Z. Car Near Irvile on Sunday.

Dennis Spinks aged 81 years, and an inmate of the Muskingum county infirmity, was killed Sunday by a Columbus, Newark and Zanesville inter-urban car near Irvile. Spinks was walking on the track and owing to deafness did not hear the whistle.

Saturday night, Spinks packed his grip and left the infirmity and started to walk home to Black Run, near Frazzysburg, presumably to visit his children. He had been in the habit of doing this frequently during his six years' life at the infirmity.

Spinks came within an inch of being killed by the previous car on the road. The motorman of this car when he was passing Dillon Falls, saw a man walking along the track, some distance ahead. He blew the whistle, but the walking figure paid no attention to the blasts, and the motorman applied the brakes just in time to avoid striking the man. The man at the lever dismounted and walked the man off the track, asking him why he didn't get out of the way. Spinks acted a little queerly, saying that he looked back ten minutes before and did not see any car.

The following car was the one which killed Spinks. The motorman blew the whistle, but did not slacken speed, as he thought the man would jump off the tracks before the car reached him. But Spinks did not fear and the fender of the car struck him, throwing him under the wheels. He was badly mangled. His head was terribly crushed, his right leg broken, and the abdomen cut badly. When the car was backed off, the man was dead. Dr. H. J. Sheppard of Zanesville, was on the car, and went to see if he could be of any assistance. Coroner D. J. Matthews was called and viewed the remains. The body was taken to Crooks' undertaking parlors in Zanesville and prepared for burial. The body was taken to the residence of his son-in-law, Fred Lindell, in Frazzysburg Monday morning for burial.

The story goes that six years ago, Spinks had trouble with his wife, and went to the county infirmity as a last resort. The couple had twelve children, ten of whom are living.

Superintendent J. W. Lane, of the county infirmity, stated that Spinks took occasional trips to Frazzysburg and stayed for two and three weeks at a time with relatives. This was done without the knowledge of the infirmity officials.

SUES ESTATE

DR. WERNETTE BEGINS ACTION WHICH CAUSES STIR.

Charges That Collections Made by His Partner Were Not Turned In—He Demands $4,500.

Coshocton, O., Oct. 31.—A sensation was sprung when Dr. Frank A. Wernette brought suit against William R. Gault and Edward Brown, the latter of Pittsburg, executors of the estate of the late Dr. Robert E. Finley, for $4,500, alleged to be due him from collections of the deceased, who was his business partner in dentistry.

The partnership existed since 1871, and it is alleged that nothing was known of the shortage until after Dr. Finley's death recently, when personal account books were found wherein he had collected accounts and never made record in the partnership books.

Dr. Finley left an estate of $60,000, much of it to churches, and at the time of his death was president of the Citizens' Banking company.

The bride was handsomely gowned in white crepe dechine and carried white roses and a prayer book a present from the groom. The bride-maid was elegantly attired in a gown of champagne color de chine. At the conclusion of the ceremony the bride-party immediately repaired to the home of the bride's parents, where a sumptuous wedding breakfast was served. The out of town guests were Mr. H. W. COMMANDERY

OF THE KNIGHTS OF ST. JOHN IS ORGANIZED.

Newark in District No. 4—Officers Elected—Resolutions on Gov. Nash's Death.

Delegates representing twelve commanderies of the Knights of St. John, comprising two entire districts and two additional commanderies not affiliated, formed the Grand Commandery of the diocese of Columbus on Sunday.

The districts comprised are District No. 4, containing the commanderies of Columbus, Newark, Logan and Lancaster; District No. 8 with the commanderies of Bellahne and Zanesville and the separate commanderies in the cities of Portsmouth and Canal Dover.

The following officers were elected: Grand commander, G. W. Wallace, Columbus; first vice grand commander, J. T. Walters, Portsmouth; second vice grand commander, George R. Clarke, Lancaster; treasurer, H. Freimuth, Zanesville; sergeant-at-arms, J. B. Jurgens, Canal Dover.

Sunday grand commanderies were formed among the Knights of St. John in all of the Catholic dioceses in the United States. Hereafter the grand commandery of each diocese will be the arbiter in all matters regarding the condition of their commanderies. Heretofore, the grand commandery of the United States as the court of appeal, there being no immediate body. The new system of diocesan commanderies will tend to make the general order more compact and facilitate the government.

Almost immediately after the organization of the grand commandery suitable resolutions were adopted on the death of former Governor Nash.

The following commanderies are included in the grand commandery formed yesterday. Nos. 97, 117, 213, 227, Cadet 15 and 29, Columbus; 105 and Cadet 5, Lancaster; 116 and Cadet 22, Logan; 151 and Cadet 21, Newark; 32, Canal Dover; 77, Zanesville; 238, Bellahne and 101, Portsmouth.

FROM AMBUSH

Came the Shots That Killed a Man Who Was Called From His Home at Night.

Columbus Grove, O., Oct. 31.—Ross Schaefer, a farmer, aged 60 years, living near Belmore, Saturday night it is alleged called John Hann, aged 25, who had been employed by him as a farm hand from his residence.

Then it is said that he under cover of the night shot twice at Hann from a hiding place, using a double-barreled shotgun as a weapon. Hann, bewildered by the first fire, ran squarely into Schaefer and the third shot penetrated his stomach, producing almost instant death.

Hann had secured judgment against Schaefer for services rendered only Saturday afternoon in court, and Schaefer it is claimed, sought revenge. Schaefer is held in answer to the charge at a preliminary hearing.

HAD CATARRH

FOR FIFTEEN YEARS AND DREAD-ED CONSUMPTION.

Vinol Worth One Thousand Dollars to Arthur Gaul.

Mr. Arthur Gaul, of Wellsville, Ohio, writes: "I wish every one suffering from catarrh or bronchial troubles knew the value of Vinol as I do. Before taking it I had catarrh for fifteen years and for the last year I had a pain in my lungs and coughed night and day, which caused me to lose flesh. I felt sure I was going into consumption, as nothing seemed to help me.

"Vinol was recommended, and after taking four bottles I am entirely cured. I would not take $1000 for the good it has done me. I wish I could persuade everybody who suffers from catarrh and bronchial troubles or who dreads consumption, to take Vinol."

To further convince the people of Newark in regard to the value of Vinol, I, Frank D. Hall, declare it to be the most valuable preparation of cod liver oil for a wasting disease, the greatest health restorer and strength creator for the weak, the convalescent and the aged which we have ever sold in our store.

I can only ask every person in Newark to try Vinol on our guarantee to return your money if it fails. This is a fair, honest offer, which you cannot lose. Frank D. Hall, Druggist.

DR. BRUSH

And His Son Thrown from a Buggy by a Runaway Near Zanesville Sunday Evening.

Dr. E. C. Brush, a prominent Zanesville physician who is well known in Newark through his prominent connection with the Ohio National Guard, while returning from a professional visit to Sonora Sunday evening, with his son, Charles, experienced a runaway accident near Zanesville. Both occupants of the buggy were thrown out and the vehicle demolished, but fortunately no bones were broken and but few bruises sustained.

At the point in the road where the accident occurred there is a plank at the bottom of a gully. It was upon this the horse slipped, forcing the animal started immediately at terrific speed, the buggy being dragged and soon demolished.

Public Schools and Pupils.
Washington, Oct. 31.—The report of the commissioner of education for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1904, made public by the secretary of the interior, shows that 1,069,361 pupils, or 20 per cent of the entire population of the country, attended the public schools during that year. As compared with the previous six years this percentage shows a slight decrease in the number of pupils as compared with the total population. The cost of the public school system is given as $21,457,625. This is an increase of $16,000,000 over the previous year. It amounts to $2.15 per capita of total population, and $22.75 per capita per pupil.

Alexieff's Future.
St. Petersburg, Oct. 31.—The military situation has not yet developed anything of great importance, though the fight at the Buddhist temple hill on Oct. 27 appears to have been decided a heavy engagement. It probably indicates that final moves on both sides are now occurring, preparatory to another long and serious battle. Viceroy Alexieff is now on the way to St. Petersburg. The nature of his reception here is food for much speculation. Some of his friends still cling to the idea that he will be made chancellor of the empire, with his residence in the winter palace.

Banker Shot.
Danville, Va., Oct. 31.—S. H. Buchanan, a banker of Jonesboro, Ga., was shot in this city and is in a critical condition. He was in the room of Mrs. W. T. White, at the latter's home, at the time, and she has been arrested charged with the crime. She declares, however, that it was a case of attempted suicide. Buchanan is said to have a wife living in Georgia. Mrs. White says she knew Buchanan in Georgia before coming to Virginia.

Strike Threatens.
Danville, Ill., Oct. 31.—Unless the operators grant the demands of the hoisting engineers the men will strike Monday night at 12 o'clock. This was the statement given out by National President Mack Taylor of the engineers' union. Orders were sent out during the day to call all the men out at midnight Monday. The order will stand unless the operators recede from their demand for a reduction of 5.55 per cent.

Dramatic Affair.
Baraboo, Wis., Oct. 31.—Former County Treasurer Archie Christy dropped dead at the feet of Governor LaFollette on the platform of the local hall in which the governor spoke, just as he was about to grasp the hand of the executive in congratulation at the conclusion of his address. The incident created excitement among the people in the hall. Death was caused by heart trouble.

Saw the Czar.
St. Petersburg, Oct. 31.—The emperor received in audience Sir Charles Hardinge, the British ambassador, at Tsarkoe Seio. The emperor and the ambassador had a long conversation. Sir Charles Hardinge also visited Foreign Minister Lamsdorff.

Russian Destroyers Sail.
Tangier, Oct. 31.—Five Russian torpedo-boat destroyers have put to sea. The remainder of the fleet has been coaling and provisioning.

Garrett, Ind., Oct. 31.—A speed of 90 miles an hour was made between this place and Avilla Sunday by a special train of four cars, which carried President Murray of the B. & O. The distance of five miles was covered in three and one-half minutes, including a stop at Garrett.

Railway Deal.

New Haven, Conn., Oct. 31.—It is definitely announced that the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad company, at a meeting of its directors last Wednesday, all but two being present, voted with substantial unanimity to accept an option offered by Kuhn, Loeb & Co. on a majority of the Ontario and Western stock. The price paid is $45 a share, ex-dividend, and all the arrangements for the temporary financing extending over some months have been made. The question of a lease of the Ontario and Western came up, but it was found that this plan required the assent of the New York Central, and it was dropped. It is probable, however, that the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad company will make provision for the minority holders of the Ontario and Western company on a basis representing about $40 per share of stock.

B. & O. Statement.

The gross earnings of the B. & O. for the month of September were $6,048,760, being an increase of $20,981 as compared with those for the corresponding month of last year. The expenses were $2,570,291, a decrease of $83,706, and the net earnings from traffic were $2,518,461 being an increase of $108,698.
